Look at the sample business letter and discuss the questions below.

1. Identify and discuss the function of each part of the letter.
2. Discuss how a business letter is different from a personal letter.
3. In what situations have you written business letters?
4. What types of business letters have you received recently?